

Scott concluded with an update on the ongoing construction work in the pump station, where a large amount of electrical and mechanical equipment remains to be installed. Some problems have been encountered with the equipment installation, which has delayed the construction schedule. Scott said that the Water Authority is working to identify a new construction completion date and will inform the community once a new date has been established.

Scott Robinson concluded the presentation by thanking everyone for attending.

#